RIDER TO MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT
BY AND BETWEEN LOCAL 68/IUOE AND
THE BOROUGH OF KEYPORT
REGARDING THE NEW COLLECTIVE BARGAINING AGREEMENT FOR THE CLERICAL UNIT

The Borough has filed, and the New Jersey Civil Service Commission has approved, a plan that provides for nine (9) additional furlough days to be imposed on the employees during the year 2009. The Borough agrees to withdraw same and not implement any additional temporary layoffs or furloughs during the year 2009. The Borough reserves the right to seek approval from the New Jersey Civil Service Commission for temporary layoffs or furloughs in any other year if it deems necessary.

Except as otherwise provided herein, the statements and provision in this Article shall not in any way constitute or act as a relinquishment of the Borough's managerial prerogative to impose temporary layoffs or furloughs nor shall it establish any right of the employees or the collective bargaining units thereunder to collectively bargain or negotiate on the issue of temporary layoffs or furloughs; nor shall it establish a past practice with regard to same.

This rider cannot create a waiver to bargain over any issues encompassed by any charges pending before PERC.

Item #3: Article 17 b. shall read as follows:

The above schedule results in a net decrease of one holiday (Election Day) for which employees will receive a one time lump sum payment of $350.00 paid out in the second pay period of 2010. This payment will not recur in successive agreements.
