10	25,266	27,400
11		29,318

Section 4

Effective January 1, 1983, each Probation Officer shall receive the salary indicated by the step on the new range equivalent to the step occupied in the old range on December 31, 1982.

Article IV - Longevity

Probation Officers will not be eligible for longevity benefits during the period of this Agreement. However, if the county grants a bonus to county employees generally as a substitute for regular longevity benefits, then Probation Officers shall also be entitled to this bonus.

Article V - Cash Education Award

Section 1

Each Probation Officer who obtains a Master's Degree from an accredited college or university in Sociology, Psychology, Criminology, Criminal Justice, Corrections, Social Work, Public Administration or a field of study related to probation as determined by the Chief Probation Officer and approved by the Judge shall be raised one step in the salary range which he occupies at the time including one increment beyond maximum (see Article III, Sections 1 & 3) upon submission of satisfactory evidence to the Chief Probation Officer of having been awarded the degree.

SOMERSET COUNTY 1982-1983 PROBATION OFFICERS' COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

Article VI - Holidays

Probation Officers shall be entitled to all legal holidays and such other days off as shall be determined by the Judiciary.

Article VII - Vacation and Other Leave Credits

Section 1

Pursuant to R. 1:30-5(b), Probation Officers shall receive the same leave credits as are provided generally to the employees of the county. Presently, Probation Officers are entitled to the following types of leave credits:

1. Vacation

- (a) Officers whose date of employment is on or before June 30 will receive one day vacation for each month of employment during that first calendar year up to a maximum of twelve working days. Employment beginning within the first fifteen days of any month shall count as one full month for this purpose.
 - (1) Officers whose date of employment is on July 1 or later will not be eligible for nor accumulate vacation credits during the remainder of that first calendar year of employment.
 - (2) During the first calendar year of employment, vacation days may be taken only as earned. However, no vacation days may be taken until the officer has been employed for a minimum of six months.
- (b) Officers who have less than five years of service on July 1 of any year shall receive twelve working days of vacation per year.
- (c) Officers who have more than five years but less than ten years of service on July 1 of any year shall receive fifteen working days of vacation annually. (Effective January 1, 1983 sixteen working days of vacation annually).
- (d) Officers who have more than ten but less than fifteen years of service on July 1 of any year shall receive eighteen working days of vacation annually. (Effective January 1, 1983 nineteen working days of vacation annually).

SOMERSET COUNTY 1982-1983 PROBATION OFFICERS' COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

- (e) Officers who have more than fifteen years but less than twenty years of service on July 1 of any year shall receive twenty-one working days of vacation annually. (Effective January 1, 1983 twenty-two working days of vacation annually).
- (f) Officers who have more than twenty years of service on July 1 of any year shall receive twenty-five working days of vacation annually. (Effective January 1, 1983 twenty-six working days of vacation annually).

2. Personal Leave

Three days annually with the permission and approval of the Chief Probation Officer.

3. Sick Leave

In accordance with county policy.

Section 2

If, during the term of this Agreement, the county grants to its employees generally any additional leave credits or any expanded leave credits, such credits shall simultaneously be awarded to Probation Officers.

Section 3

Each Probation Officer may receive two days professional leave each year for the purpose of attending workshops, seminars, etc., in order to improve his/her effectiveness in the service, upon approval of the Chief Probation Officer.

Article VIII - Health and Welfare Benefits

Probation Officers shall continue to be provided with all health and welfare benefits presently granted to Somerset County employees generally. The benefits include, but are not limited to a dental plan, a non-contributory Blue Cross, Blue Shield, Rider J, Major Medical Insurance or H.M.O. If, during the term of this Agreement, the county grants to its employees generally any additional health and welfare benefits, such as optical or drug plan, or provides any expanded coverage, such benefits shall simultaneously be awarded to Probation Officers.

SOMERSET COUNTY 1982-1983 PROBATION OFFICERS' COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

Article IX - Grievance Procedure

The parties agree that a complaint or grievance of any Probation Officer relating to the interpretation, application or violation of policies, agreements and administrative decisions affecting them, if not otherwise provided for in law or in applicable rule and regulations having the force and effect of law, shall be settled in the following manner:

Step 1

The grievance shall first be taken to the officer's immediate supervisor who shall make an effort to resolve the problem within a reasonable period of time; within three (3) working days, if possible. At this level, a complaint or grievance need not be in writing. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent;

Step 2

If not resolved at the supervisory level, the grievance shall be put in writing, signed by the aggrieved officer, and submitted to the Chief Probation Officer, who shall acknowledge its receipt within three (3) working days and shall render a decision within five (5) working days thereafter. In the case of absence of the Chief Probation Officer, the grievance may be handled by a designated assistant or it may proceed to the next step with the approval of both parties. The time limit in this step may be extended by mutual consent;

Step 3

If the aggrieved officer is not satisfied with the decision of the Chief Probation Officer, he may choose to utilize one of the following two options:

- (a) The officer may appeal to the Civil Service Commission under the laws and rules governing the operation of that agency, provided that the Commission agrees to hear the case;
- (b) He/she may appeal to the Judge, in which case the decision of the Judge shall be final and shall be rendered with reasonable promptness. The Judge may designate any Court employee or other representative who is not an employee of the Courts to hear and make recommendations to him for disposition.

SOMERSET COUNTY 1982-1983 PROBATION OFFICERS' COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

All grievances and complaints that are related to Judicial policy and/or the authority of the Chief Justice, Supreme Court, Administrative Director of the Courts or the Assignment Judge under Rule 1:34-4 and any other applicable statute or court rule shall be limited to Step 3(b). In using the grievance procedure established herewith, an employee is entitled at each step to be represented by an attorney of his own choosing, or by a bona fide member of the Association designated to represent him pursuant to this Agreement.

Notwithstanding any procedures for the resolution of disputes, controversies or grievances established by any other statute, grievance procedures established herein shall be utilized to cover any dispute covered by the terms of this Agreement.

Hearings and/or meetings resulting from the implementation of step 2 of this grievance procedure shall be held after the normal workday.

Article X - Review of Personnel Files

Each officer shall have access to his/her own personnel file during reasonable working hours upon written notification to the Chief Probation Officer. All documents contained in such files shall be sequentially numbered and, upon examination of said documents, each document shall be initialed by the employee concerned. The signature affixed by the employee to any document in such file shall not indicate in any way that the employee agreed with the contents of the file. The signature will be affixed only to show the file has been reviewed, in accordance with the present Agreement. The employee shall have the right to respond in writing to any document in the file. Such response shall become part of the personnel file. The employee may institute grievance procedures regarding any statement containing evaluatory material of a negative nature, beginning with material entered on the effective date of this contract and material entered thereafter. A copy of any document subsequently placed in the personnel file shall be given to the affected employee.

Article XI - Liability Insurance

Probation Officers shall be entitled to the same liability insurance coverage and provisions of legal assistance in actions arising out of the performance of their duties as are other employees of the county.

Article XII - Federal and State Laws - Severability

In the event any Federal or State Law, or any determination having the force and effect of law (including rules, regulations, or directives of the Chief Justice, Supreme Court of New Jersey, or the Administrative Director of the Courts) conflicts with the provision or provisions of this Agreement, the provision or provisions so affected shall no longer be operative or binding upon the parties but the remaining portion of the Agreement shall continue in full force and effect. The parties will meet within 30 days to renegotiate the item so severed.

SOMERSET COUNTY 1982-1983 PROBATION OFFICERS' COLLECTIVE AGREEMENT

Article XIII - Conclusiveness of Agreement

This Agreement constitutes the final and complete understanding between the parties on all bargainable issues, subject to the right of the parties to reopen discussion on any such issues but only by their mutual consent.

Article XIV - Duration of Contract

Section 1

The provisions of this Agreement shall be retroactive to January 1, 1982 and shall remain in full force and effect until December 31, 1983. By mutual concurrence of the parties, they may be continued for an additional time period.

Section 2

A written notice to terminate or modify this Agreement is required to be given at least 60 days prior to December 31, 1983.

In witness of this Agreement, the parties to it have affixed their signature this 5TH day of MAY, 1982.
