b. Sick leave may be granted for the serious illness of a member of an employee's immediate family or household (as defined in Article 26) who require the employee's attention and care. The circumstances of the illness must be of an emergent nature and require the employee to be in direct attendance upon such family member. The period of such leave shall not exceed three (3) working days.

2. Employees who are unable to work due to illness (or any other reason) shall give notice to the Department Head or a designee. The Employer will provide a telephone number for the employees to call and give such notice. Notice is defined to mean a telephone call to the Department Head or a designee at least one hour before the employee's scheduled starting time. 3. Upon receipt of such notice and the cause of absence, the Department Head or designee shall inform the employee whether the Employee shall continue to notify on a daily basis or whether a less frequent notice is acceptable to the Employer.

Such examination shall be at a time reasonably proximate to the period of absence.

6. Sick leave shall not accrue during a leave of absence without pay or a period of suspension or after an employee has resigned or retired and the retention of the employee's name on the payroll until exhaustion or other compensatory leave, shall not entitle the employee to accrue additional sick leave.

7. Earned, but unused, sick leave shall accrue from year to year without limitation.

8. Employees shall earn sick leave as follows:

The applicable provisions of the New Jersey Workers Compensation Act are incorporated by reference.
2. Injury leave benefits are subject to the same rules and regulations as workers compensation claims, and payment shall not be made if the accident is proved to have been due to intoxication or willful conduct by employees.
3. Employees absent from work due to an accident, illness or injury covered by Workers Compensation, who willfully fail to fulfill all of the conditions necessary to receive workers compensation benefits, shall not be entitled to payment of any injury leave benefits from the Employer until such conditions are fulfilled.
4. Employees absent from work due to an accident, illness or injury compensable under the applicable provisions of the New Jersey Workers Compensation Act or any policy of Workers Compensation Insurance, applicable to the said employees, and who have completed three (3) months of work with the Employer shall be compensated by the Employer on a bi-weekly basis at their regular hourly rate of pay plus longevity pay, if any, for a period not in excess of thirty (30) working days for each new and separate injury.
5. Payment shall be by checks issued by the Employer in the full amount of the employee's pay for regularly scheduled hours. Employees who receive compensation checks for temporary disability due to injury during the aforesaid thirty (30) day period shall then endorse such checks over to the Employer. Subject to compliance with applicable Federal and State law or regulation, the Employer shall record the portion of the pay equal to the amount of the compensation checks for partial disability as not being income to the employee and the W-2 or similar forms sent to the employees at the conclusion of each year shall not show such payments as income; or

6. Checks shall be issued by the Employer in amounts equal to the difference between pay for regularly scheduled hours and the amount of Workers Compensation payments received by the employees during the aforesaid thirty (30) day period.

7. If eligibility for such payments is contested by the Employer, then entitlement to payment shall be decided by the determination of the New Jersey Division of Workers Compensation pursuant to the terms of the "Act".

8. If the Employer is contesting a claim for an injury leave benefit, an absence from work may be changed to accrued sick leave, if any.

9. If the Division of Workers Compensation determines an employee is entitled to benefits, then sick leave so charged shall be x-credited to the employee.

10. If entitlement to benefits is denied by the Division of Workers Compensation, then the employee's absence from work may be charged to sick leave and vacation leave, if any, retroactive to the date of injury.

11. The Employer, at its expense, may require employees to furnish medical proof or submit to a medical examination by a physician chosen by the Employer to determine whether an injury is a new or separate injury or is an aggravation of a former injury received while working for the Employer.

12. Employees who suffer an injury while working, as defined in Paragraph 1 hereinabove, and who are absent for five (5) days or more, shall be required to submit a written certification from a physician setting forth the nature of the injury and the physician's diagnosis and prognosis as to the length of time before the employee can return to work. Additional reports shall be received from the physician every two (2) weeks thereafter, stating the employee's medical condition and the date of the employee's anticipated return to work. In the absence of such certification, the employee shall be removed from injury leave.

13. After all injury leave is used and upon application, employees may be granted additional injury leave at the discretion of the Bergen County Executive. Decisions of the County Executive on such applications are not subject to grievance. After all injury leave is used, employees may elect to use any sick leave, vacation leave or compensatory time accrued at the time of the injury.

3. Personal leave shall not be accrued from year to year.

4. The Department Head or a designee shall be notified by employees in advance of their intention to use personal leave. Except in emergencies, prior approval of the Department Head or a designee must be obtained before personal leave may be taken.

5. Effective January 1, 2004, an employee subsequently employed by the County must work at least six (6) months before being allowed to use personal leave.

3. Proof of death of the family member shall be provided to the Employer upon request by the Department Head or a designee and within thirty (30) days of the period of such leave.

4. Effective January 1, 2005, add aunt, uncle and domiciled partner to those people upon which bereavement leave may be taken (day of funeral only). Domiciled partner is defined as the designated beneficiary on the employee's insurance plan under PERS.
